These Are Closing Sales
Each Day.

New York, Nov. 1.—A striking evidence of the constraint upon speculation was given by the action of the market to-day on the announcement of the declaration of an extra dividend of 1 per cent. on Pennsylvania Railroad stock. Previous to the announcement the stock had been lifted a point and then reacted. When the news was bulletined there was a spasmodic rise in the stock to 136 1/2, but only one sale was made at that price, after which it fell back. Early in October Pennsylvania sold below 125. It has been actively traded in by energetic bull interests since that time and a great variety of assertions have been made as to the forthcoming benefits to the stock. Reviewing these past conditions it is fair to assume that to-day's action was a disappointment to the speculators who were in the stock, while it was certainly an agreeable surprise to the conservative element in the Street. But when it is considered that the net earnings of the Pennsylvania Railroad and of the lines directly operated by it have increased during nine months of the year more than 50 per cent. and that the rate of distribution seems moderate. The extra dividend will involve the disbursement of a little over $1,000,000. The stock is now at 136 1/2, and the trading was remarkably quiet. There was a considerable show of strength in Sugar. The advance was attested by rumors that a break in the prices of refined sugars is imminent. Business in the market at large was too small to have any important effect on the market, though the market closed with the level somewhat above last night after having been at one time a shade lower. A single lot of Lake Shore sold just before the close at 220. The closing bid yesterday at 210. The closing bid was quoted at 210 1/2. Nothing could be learned to account for this small but urgent demand. The depression of speculation is still attributed to the influence of what are called the "controlling interests" in the market. The rise in the call loan rate from 4 to 5 per cent. may have some bearing on the extreme dullness of the speculation. Stock market demands upon the money market during the week have been extremely moderate, and further receipts to the interior through the sub-treasury since last Friday. That call loans should have stiffened to-day under those circumstances argues some special demand on the money market. The demand is probably due to the making of arrangements for November dividend disbursements and will therefore be temporary and followed by an abundant return to the market within a few days. The bond market shared in the dullness of stocks and prices moved irregularly. Total sales par value, $1,240,000. United States bonds were unchanged on last call. There were 245,200 shares of stocks sold to-day.
